Antiques & Art Around Florida - The Highwaymen. by Jim Fitch. As seen in Antiques & Art Around Florida, Winter/Spring 1995. "The Highwaymen" is a name I've given to a group of black artists working on the East coast of Florida from approximately 1955 to the present. So called because their marketing and sales strategy consisted of traveling the highways and byways of central Florida peddling their paintings out of the back of their cars.

This was the beginning of the first black folk art movement in Florida in the 1900's. The Highwaymen School begins. Harold Newton and Alfred Hair were the two leaders of this group of twenty-five men and one woman, mostly from Fort Pierce, Florida. These beautiful paintings depicting river, ocean and marsh scenes are full of color.
