Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature. Our combination of award-winning feature writing, investigative reporting, service journalism, and design covers the people, lifestyle, culture, entertainment, fashion, art and architecture, and news that define Southern California. Started in the spring of 1961, Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years. The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian.

This book is about the life of a physician, scientist, psychiatrist, and bioethicist that has been interwoven with the coexistence of the hepatitis C virus (HCV). It entails medical, ethical, spiritual, and historical reflections, as well as the objective and personal history and science of viral hepatitis as well. His life might also be seen as a story of multiple survival episodes—not all related to HCV—that suggests providential oversight.
