On the individual planning sheet include some information about the child, e.g., name, date of birth, name of key person, sessions attending. Other boxes that should be included with each week should be a box containing child's interests and a next step box. It is also recommended to include an adult initiated activity section.

Implementing Children's Individual Planning

Care planning, involvement and person-centred care. This section explores two key themes that are central to care planning within the MCA framework: involvement, and keeping the wishes of the person at the centre of their care and support. It emphasises that building relationships and good communication are critical to meaningful involvement.
