There are three seconds left. You are the field goal kicker and have been asked to be the HERO or the GOAT for your high school football team. You have never kicked a football in a game before. There are over 5000 people in the stands and they are loudly screaming and booing to try to shake you to miss the kick. How do you think you would respond? This is the true story of a High School Football team that started their 2-year journey with "Three Seconds Left.". That high school was called the 71st Fighting Falcons! The boys became men during those 2-years and learned of victory and defeat; pain and anguish. This is how the class of 1987 at 71st High School started on their unforgettable football journey. In a strange twist of fate, this is how their story would finally end.
