His Eye Is On The Sparrow Lyrics. His Eye is On The Why should I feel discouraged, why should the shadows come, Why should my heart be lonely, and long for heaven and home, When Jesus is my portion? My constant friend is He: His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me; His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me. I sing because I'm happy,

His Eye is on the Sparrow - Lyrics, Hymn Meaning and Story
I sing because I'm happy, I sing because I'm free, For His eye is on the sparrow, And I know He watches me. "Let not your heart be troubled," His tender word I hear, And resting on His goodness, I lose my doubts and fears; Though by the path He leadeth, but one step I may see; His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me; His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me.

His Eye Is on the Sparrow Lyrics
"His Eye is on the Sparrow" is a Gospel hymn written in 1905 by lyricist Civilla D. Martin and composer Charles H. Gabriel. It is most associated with actress-singer Ethel Waters who used the title for her autobiography. Mahalia Jackson's recording of the song was honored with the Grammy Hall of Fame Award in 2010. Sometimes it was sung with the slightly altered title "His Eye is on the Tiny Bird" and this version was recorded by actress Violet Carson in 1972.

This is a collection of memoirs experienced over a span of 37 years of teaching and administering in a series of different environments. Each experience required not only a knowledge of past practice, but a vision of what was important to the growth and health of the setting in question and what would provide the strongest change process.

"His Eye on the Sparrow" is the autobiography of Helen Parker who began life in 1921 rural Kansas. Her remarkable life story includes weathering the depression and World War II, mothering seven children, and losing her eyesight as a young woman. She wrote her memories for her children. However, her stellar memory, delightful sense of humor and unwavering faith make her courageous story a good read for anyone.

For over three years, Shirley has been growing physically stronger and healthier with my help. Now you have the opportunity to grow spiritually stronger as you enjoy His Eye is on the Sparrow, her first devotional. Nicholas Galuardi-Exercise Physiologist, Saratoga Health and Wellness Center. Saratoga Springs, NY. Shirley Andrews has brought forth the greatness of our God through the visualization of nature; through the lives and behaviors of some of Gods most colorful creatures, birds! Shirley brings together her words of wisdom and the power of her prayers as she shares with each new description. As I read the book, I gained a totally new insight into how our God, the Creator of all things, yearns for us to be close to Him. Through the Scripture and the photos we see clearly the loving beauty of Gods creation. I recommend this devotional for people who are looking for the gentleness, sweetness and loving kindness that comes to us through Shirleys ability to show us the greatness that comes from small things. I encourage each of you to take this devotional each day and see how God will reveal Himself to you and how we along with Shirley Journey with her in her relationship with God. This book brings forth the greatness of God on each page! ENJOY! Rev. Patti Molik Elder, Upper New York Annual Conference United Methodist Church Shirleys wonderful compilation of prayer, Scripture, photography, and devotional reflections, contained in His Eye Is on the Sparrow, provided me with a greater respect of the interdependence between humanity and creation and the way in which Gods presence sustains and maintains the fragile balance between the two. This inspiring devotional highlights insightful lessons to each of us through the life of various birds God has gifted to the world. I know I will look at birds differently from now on. Rev. Penny Brink Elder, Upper New York Annual Conference United Methodist Church Shirley turns our attention to the loving presence of God all around us and encourages us to step out in faith to receive the grace God is waiting to share with us. Rev. David Martin Elder, Upper New York Annual Conference Hope United Methodist Church, Troy, NY

Katelynn is a young teen in a complex dysfunctional family life. Her survival of abuse and her friendships along the way were phenomenal. Her story is an eye opening tale of how one young woman coped with the challenges and beat the odds of survival which were stacked high against her. Katelynn was sixteen and pondering her life choices. Determined to have a better life than what was placed before her, she learned of friendship, love, compassion, and a sense of family through her supportive teacher and mentor.

Once again, Ann Pearlman, author of Infidelity: a Love Story (nominated for a Pulitzer Prize and the National Book award, and the inspiration for a Lifetime movie) returns to memoir in His Eye Is On the Sparrow: An engagement in black and white. It's 1962 in the Midwest. The civil rights movement has just begun. Ann, who is Jewish, and Ty, who is black, are college students in love, and excited to meet each other's families. Along the way they encounter potentially violent, racially charged situations as their parents cope with their childrens' places in the forefront of changes yet to come. Ty and Ann learn about each other's community and family as they struggle with the realities of interracial relationship. And we, the readers, have a window into exactly how far we've come in the last half century in America. Or have we?
