Searching for Stinkodon by Megan McDonald is an early Juvenile fiction chapter book that tells the story of Judy Moody and her friends as they look for fossils in her backyard. The idea is instigated by Judy ' s younger brother Stink, as he wants to try to find a fossil of any prehistoric creature, have it named after him and become famous.

Judy Moody and Friends: Searching for Stinkodon by Megan ...

The grammar in the Friends series sometimes makes me cringe and stumble over the wording but the Judy Moody and Stink books seem to be written much better. We also live in a part of the country that rarely sees snow so my daughter could really relate to Stink's longing for a white Christmas. As an only child she had a harder time relating to the name calling and playful teasing, though.

James Edison "Stink" Moody is Judy Moody's little brother. He reads encyclopedias a lot and joins the Toad Pee Club. He has Toady, his pet mascot for the club.

Camping out in his backyard in the hope of spotting a comet that has been making headlines, Stink is frightened by a report of an asteroid hitting Russia and begins making paranoid preparations for an apocalyptic event. Simultaneous.

Surprises are in store as Stink excavates his backyard in search of a relic from an extinct beast — and Judy lends him a little sleight of hand. Mega-chomp! Stink wants to make the find of the century. He ' s on a dig, dig, digging quest in his backyard to find a tooth from a saber-toothed cat, otherwise known as a Smilodon. Why not? Two kids in Michigan found a mastodon bone in a backyard stream, and a girl in Great Britain found a pterosaur bone. It could happen! But Judy thinks the chances of finding a saber-toothed anything in the Moody backyard are one in a gazillion million. Will Stink make a discovery before their whole backyard caves in? Just right for newly independent readers, this latest story from Megan McDonald is sure to leave Moody fans with smiles as wide as a Smilodon ' s.

Mighty righty Judy Moody is out of her element in this righty-to-lefty switcheroo just right for newly independent readers. Left-handers are creative. Left-handers are geniuses. Half of all cats are lefties! (Or so says Stink.) But Judy is a righty . . . and Judy is feeling left out. Tomorrow is Left Handers Day, and Stink and Dad, the southpaws in the Moody family, are celebrating at the pretzel factory. Judy is allowed to come along on one condition: she has to be left-handed — the whole entire day. It ' s on!

Third grader Judy Moody is in a first-day-of-school bad mood until she gets an assignment to create a collage all about herself and begins creating her masterpiece, the Me collage.

By popular demand, Judy Moody herself steps into the spotlight in a story that is sure to have kids grinning — and believing. Judy and her friends are on the playground when Jessica Finch overhears a fifth-grader talking. What!? There ' s no such thing as the Tooth Fairy? Can that big kid be right? Luckily, Judy Moody is on the case! All she needs is one loose tooth, a semi-reluctant little brother, a bathtub, a string, a toy motorboat, and . . . open wide, Stink! But what if the real Tooth Fairy is a no-show? Judy Moody fans will happily sink their teeth into this cavity-free caper full of surprises — and a little bit of magic.

During a weekend trip to Ocracoke Island, siblings Judy and Stink Moody take part in a pirate treasure-hunting game, in which various clues lead them to silver coins, or "pieces of eight," hidden across the island.

Judy and Stink prepare for this year's "Turkey Trot," with the main prize being a juicy turkey, but they worry that if they don't win, the family won't have a Thanksgiving meal.

One set, two Moodys, three full-color escapades! Included in this super-awesome set: Judy Moody and Stink: The Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad Treasure Hunt Judy and Stink hunt for adventure (and pirate gold!) when the Moody family drops anchor on "Artichoke" Island for a summer getaway. Judy Moody and Stink: The Big Bad Blackout The Moody family is hunkered down at home during a storm when the lights go O-U-T out! Will a combination of storytelling, games, and s ' mores brighten the day? Judy Moody and Stink: The Holly Joliday It ' s almost Christmas, and Judy Moody is making a list and checking it twice. But all her brother, Stink, wants this year is snow.

Judy can't wait for her mischief to bear fruit when Stink discovers that his backyard science project is an overnight success. Hardy-har-har! Prankenstein strikes again! The Summer Science Showdown is just around the corner, and Stink is positive that he has the recipe for a winning entry. Soon he's acting like a mad scientist, with strong-smelling potions in hand and visions of super tomatoes dancing in his head. Judy takes one look at her busy brainiac brother and sees a situation ripe for a little mischief! Everyone knows that Judy has never met a practical joke she doesn't like, and soon the Princess of Pranks is cooking up a recipe of her own. From Megan McDonald comes an epic match of wits in a Judy Moody story perfect for newly independent readers.

Judy's brother Stink, who desperately wants it to snow for Christmas, gets his wish when a new mailman, who knows a lot about weather patterns and has a fondness for the cold, arrives. Reprint.
