Relations in Public - Erving Goffman - Google Books

The general characterization of Goffman's scholarly work applies to the present volume, Relations in Public. This volume carrying the subtitle Microstudies of the Public Order consists of six interrelated articles with an illuminating preface and a lengthy appended essay. The common area of the studies is the "field of public life" which Goffman identifies as the "realm of activity that is generated by face-to-face interaction and organized by norms of co-mingling" a domain
