The Consultants manages to do something that very few shows manage, namely making comedy songs work well. The archeology song and "Twenty Below In My Heart" are fantastic. As another reviewer has said, the only down side is the truly bonkers way the CD chapters bear no relation to the starts and ends of sketches, and just cut in half way through.

Description. The Consultant's Big Book of Organization Development Tools is a collection of 40 tools, interventions, and activities consultants can use to help solve individual, team, and organizational performance problems. The tools in the book help consultants facilitate the difficult "soft issues" involving organizational politics, interdepartmental communication, conflict among leaders, etc, that are often the cause of serious business problems.
