I agree, the personal relationship that the spy developed with his 'mother' was extremely interesting.
Playing the role of the son, and improvising the act, was a testament to his ability as a spy. His "mother's" story was equally as interesting as well. The theory provided by the spy towards the end is icing on the cake.
